Please answer the following questions in 300 words or less, unless otherwise specified.

- 1) Talk about a specific challenge or conflict you faced as a member of Committee this past year. How did you overcome it, what did you learn, and is there anything you would have done differently?
- 2) As returning members of the organization, it is critical to be welcoming and inclusive to all new members of the organization as well as those of varied racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds. As a returning member, how would you welcome a new member onto Committee? What lessons would you share with them in order to be successful in this organization?
- 3) Please elaborate on your preferred committee(s). What characteristics do you believe you have that make you the best candidate and what visions do you have for the position(s).
- 4) In 150 words or less, please answer the following question. It is a cold day outside, so you understandably order a hot chocolate from Holy Grounds. For some reason, you then decide to open a hot chocolate company in Florida. How would you approach selling hot chocolate in Florida on a hot day?

We will be unable to accept all applicants onto Committee this year. However, we promise to give everyone the ability to spread the mission of Special Olympics should they wish to. If you are not placed on Committee this year, there will be several opportunities to get involved with Inclusion Crew, Volunteer Coordinators, Athlete Practices, Unified Events, Fundraising Events among various other events throughout the year. We will continue to communicate with you regarding these opportunities throughout the year!
